Comments: The gym is open minimally but is the only viable option in the area. The gym is a big community supporter and all members are quiet and respectful in the local area. Any running up the residential road is done carefully and is low numbers. We do not shout as we work out. The music is kept low so we can hear the instructors. We do not hang around excessively after classes. The car park & stable yard provide adequate parking and what's more times have just been realigned to ensure no cross over parking issues with back to back classes. I am struggling to validity in the comments made by Burton.
