Subject: HPK/2024/0137 Gas Works Site Horwich End, New Road, Whaley Bridge. Two dwellings with garden and parking space - archaeology
Date: 30 April 2024 09:53:56

Dear James,

Thank you for consulting on the above planning application. The proposals are within a site on Derbyshire HER (MDR9287) for the site of a 19th century goods yard, sidings and gas works. Historic mapping does not however show any features of likely interest within the current proposal site, so I advise that there is no need for an archaeological response.

Regards
