Comments: The same developers under a different name are the ones who built my house along with 44 others directly facing this new development.

They've left the houses in a terrible way with 100's of snags per house over 250 snags in my house alone plus, the road was never complete which had devalued our houses. Furthermore, the land on our estate was supposed to have been finished too and made into a nice communal area however the land has been left unsafe with rebar sticking up out of the ground, glass, bricks and rubble everywhere also.

Please! Do not let this developer do anymore houses in Glossop as we've had a nightmare with them and it's still on going!

Visit Charlestown View at anytime and speak to any home owner we would all give a similar experience.
