Comments: The infrastructure of Glossop is already struggling with the houses that we have, especially in terms of traffic. Building more houses will also put more pressure on our local health care, schooling and child care facilities. There has already been a failed housing development in Gamesley which is an eye sore for the residents. The beauty of the local area and the wildlife that live there will also be disturbed. Furthermore this development will do nothing to alleviate the need for AFFORDABLE housing in the area, as these housing developers often promise but fail to deliver on.
