YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

After writing to you in favour of this project, I was extremely disappointed to learn that this application for affordable housing had been turned down. This would have been a great opportunity for myself to get on the property ladder in my home area.

Since the project was initially rejected I have had to look further away for something affordable. I will now have to commute to work and I'm further away from my home town and friends.

I urge you to look at how little affordable housing there is in the area and reconsider this promising project to help people in the area to stay here.
