Comments: I fully support the planned opening of The Cracken bistro in Chinley and feel it will add to and compliment existing businesses and establishments. I'm aware of the application for amended trading hours and a music licence and don't anticipate that this will have an adverse effect and will in fact provide local people with a really refreshing alternative. The 9pm 'ceiling' and sound proofing means that there won't be any late noise anyway. My worry was that the space that was 'Tea on the Green' would remain empty so the idea of a new bistro is really exciting and very welcome.
