Comments: Old Glossop, particularly the area around the old hospital and Blackshaw Clough/Hawkshead is becoming choked with new builds all happening at once. This is seemingly without any consideration for the landscape of Old Glossop and maintaining its character as a village. The council do not seem to be matching the rate of new housing with the introduction of doctors/dentists/school places and there is no real investment in the infrastructure of the surrounding area. Parking is also already very tight in and around Old Glossop roads with the local bus regularly getting stuck or struggling due to the volume of traffic and parked cars. I moved from Tintwistle to Old Glossop to stay in a semi-rural location and it feels that at every turn this is being eroded and the village is becoming more and more built up.
