Subject: RE: HPK/2025/0101 - 57 New Mills Road, Birch Vale

Hi James,

So, just to confirm, dwg revision W is remaining as the access and internal layout and dwg revision J was incorrectly submitted and should be ignored?

If that is the case, then there appears to be no proposed highway related revisions to the approved plans (condition 2) of HPK/2020/0558 and as such no LHA objections to application HPK/2025/0101.

I hope I have understood the situation but pls let me know if there is anything different which I should be aware of.

Regards.
