Comments: I am owner of Ivy Cottage one of the Consulted on this application. I completely object to this application. Why can't the land be utilised for

This application? The absolute mayhem that digging up this road is going to cause not only the local residents but the emergency services. refuge. diverted traffic., but like everything done for this Battery storage it will be underhand. Why ask for any comments when you don't actually listen to local residents. All local councillors should think about what they are actually doing before making their decisions. Somethings will Never been the same again. Jayne Tomlin.. proud owner of Ivy Cottage..
