Comments: Hi,

I am a retired chef. From my professional experience, I believe this project will be very positive for local restaurants, cafés, and other independent shops. Short-term holiday accommodation encourages visitors from outside the area to stay in Glossop, increasing footfall and helping local businesses benefit from visitor spending.

It is always beneficial to have well-managed short-let holiday homes within a town centre, as they bring people who actively contribute to the local economy during their stay.

I have also reviewed the proposed plans and am satisfied that the project complies with conservation area requirements. In particular, the restoration of the shop front to its original appearance is a welcome improvement that will enhance the character of the High Street.

Overall, I believe this is a positive and well-considered project that will be good for Glossop in every way.
