Subject: Comments acknowledgement for SCOW/1/92

Thank you for submitting comments online for the following planning application:

Application number: SCOW/1/92

Site: Arden & Birch Vale Landfill Site, Oven Hill Road, New Mills, Derbyshire SK22 1BY

Proposal: Scoping for a proposed Northern and South-Eastern Landfill Extension and associated Materials Recycling Facility, Wash Plant for Soils Recycling, and removal of Remaining Stone Deposits

Your comments:

I live in Birch Vale and I am very concerned about this.

Are they planning to start dumping household rubbish like they used to?

It really isn't clear what they are planning with this extension?

It was so bad when they dumped rubbish there in the past, it was constantly smelling awful, we used to have to phone the environmental agency to complain all the time it was so bad. It used to make us all feel sick and unwell. We couldn't even sit in the garden some days the smell was so bad. It was very stressful and negatively effected our mental health.
