Comments: I have walked past this plot of land daily with my dog for the past 4 years. This site was going to waste and ruin, full of litter and damaged walls, steel mesh fencing covering the entrance. Since the current owner has taken it on, there has been one improvement after another.

Its lifted the whole area since it has been cleaned up and used. The walls have been rebuilt , weeds removed , an in keeping gate fitted to the entrance.

I support the application and going of the improvements already I think it will only continue to lift the area.
