Comments: At first I was for the idea, however now ive been made aware of the amount of living spaces there will be, one bedroom at that, who will the living spaces be for exactly? Where will all the new 'residents' park thier cars? Which doctors will these new residents be able to register at, with doctors surgeries already bursting at the seams.

I also didnt realise that some of the beautiful buildings in Buxton would need to be demolished, on order to make way for, what is in comparison, this monstrosity.

I am now strongly against the idea and can only see that this will have a negative impact on the tourist trade within Buxton also, where will visitors park their cars?
