Comments: My main concern is the lack of parking to allow residents like myself to pop into town to shop. I worry that the local businesses will suffer as a result.

I also worry that the proposal to build such a large number of homes in the centre of the town will affect the nature of the town centre and its attraction for tourists as a Georgian Spa town.

There have been a very large number of houses built in Buxton in the last few years and I worry that the facilities needed to support a larger population have not been built. School places, doctors and dentists for example.
