Comments: Full support for the project, the plans show great attention to details and effort to keep the architectural character of Buxton, the colour of the stones, green areas but will revitalise the town with plenty of new opportunities for businesses, retail etc. The town has plenty to offer but now there are limited options and this project will bring Buxton to a different level and looking forward to the river to be opened up, Buxton is a spa town but except for the gorgeous river in Pavillion Gardens and the woodlands, there is no other running courses of water and this is shame.
