Buxton shopping centre redevelopment

Most of the criticism of the redevelopment, distance to car parks, one train per hour ect have been to you by several hundred other people who have given there views. I thaught i would cut to the chase an mention, who actually designed the new hideous builds.

I was trying to think of a similar set of building, which had similar out of place design, I was considering Brutalism, but that occasionally has some limited charn.

Buxton has some beautiful impressive building's, your proposals look like a Friday afternoon job, produced for the lowest cost with the minimal effort.

Please dont ruin an aesthetic pleasing town with 3rd rate deigns.

PS i think your designs are very similar to the Berlin wall, Piccadilly Manchester when it was at its worst
