NOTES

1. If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Office of the Deputy Prime Minister in accordance with Section 78 & 79 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990. PLEASE NOTE the time period for appeal has changed. If your application was registered as received before 14th January 2005 you can appeal within 3 months of the date of this decision. If your application was registered on or after 14th January 2005 you can appeal within 6 months of the date of this decision. The Office of the Deputy Prime Minister has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The First Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal, if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any direction given under the order.
2. If permission to develop land is refused or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Office of the Deputy Prime Minister, and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the county district in which the land is situated, a purchase notice requiring that council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Section 137 & 138 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
3. In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the First Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 114 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
4. This permission relates to planning control only. Approval under the Building Regulations may also be required from this authority. Any other statutory consent necessary must be obtained from the appropriate authority.
5. If it is intended to give notice of appeal in accordance with Paragraph 1 above, this should be done on the appropriate form obtainable from: The Planning Inspectorate, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol, BS1 6PN, tel. 0117 3728000, fax. 0117 – 3728624.
6. Where a vehicle is often driven across a grass verge or kerbed footway to and from premises adjoining a highway, the occupier of the premises may, be required to pay the cost of construction of a crossing, and/or the strengthening of a footway, as the Authority considers necessary, or may be required to comply with conditions, imposed by the Authority. You should contact the Highway Authority, Derbyshire County Council at County Hall, Matlock, Derbyshire, tel. 01629 580000.
7. Developers should be aware of their statutory obligations with regard to access to buildings and their surroundings, in particular:

Building Regulations 2000 Approved Document M, 2004 Edition
The Work Place (Health, Safety & Welfare) Regulations 1992
The Disability Discrimination Act 1995
The Disability Discrimination (Employment) Regulations 1996

8. Developers should also be aware of the provisions of the Gas Safety Regulations 1972 and Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1984. It is possible that the existing gas service pipe which lies within the area of the proposed extension of alterations which will contravene the provisions of these Regulations. It is necessary that you contact British Gas, North West House, Gould Street, Manchester, M4 4DJ, who will advise if the existing gas service pipe requires alterations.
